DRUG ADDICTION

The word 'addict' means to become habitual to some evil or health deteriorating habit. It is always implied in the bad sense. All know addiction is never praised and drug addiction is abused by all. It is the way of sucking our blood, flesh, mind, and soul and leaves us like a withered log on an oak tree. The modern research on drug addiction had laid down the harmful effects of drugs on our tree. The modern research on drug addiction had laid down the harmful effects of drugs on our body, soul mind, family and the future generation. It distorts our nervous system and acts as slow poison which brings death. All our energy is sucked out like bacteria. The users become hollow, powerless and have their moral degradation. An addict is unable to take the right decision at the right time. So addiction of drugs, wine, smack, hashish, and tobacco, etc. should give up at all costs.
