Essay on Prize Distribution Function in School

Prize Distribution is one of the most important functions of the school. It is a memorable event in the history of the institution. It is held generally a few days before the examinations. It marks the amount of work done by the students.

The prize distribution function of our school was held in the first week of March. It was held in the school hall. The Director of Education was the chief guest of the function. The rooms were whitewashed and cleaned before the function. The school compound was decorated with flowerpots and buntings.

The Chief-guest arrived exactly 4. p.m. He was warmly received by the Principal and the staff at the gate. The school band played the national song. The scouts gave him a guard of honor. He was accompanied to the hall by the Principal and some members of the Committee.

The function started with a song. It was followed by a short-drama. The Principal read the annual report about the progress, examination results, and extra-curricular activities of the school. The President gave away the prizes. I also won a prize for standing first in my class. After that, the chief guest delivered a short speech. He praised the school for its all-round progress and brought home to the students their duties and responsibilities. Just after the speech, the principal then thanked the Chief-guest for his kind visit. The function comes to an end at 6:30 p.m.
