Essay on A Hockey Match

Games are very important to us. They keep our body and mind healthy. A healthy mind continues better. There are many kinds of games played by us. A hockey match is one of them. It is very popular over the world.

Yesterday a hockey match was played between the Ramjas School team and our school team. Our school ground was the scene of the match. A large number of students came there to see the match.

The referee blew his whistle at 4. p.m. Both the teams entered the ground. The players were in their uniforms. Our team lost the toss. The players were posted by their captains and the match started.

The start was dull. Neither team played well. Then the game became interesting. Our players began to play well. The Central Forward of our team passed the ball on to the captain. The captain rolled it on cleverly and hit to the Right-in. The Right-in gave a hard hit and scored a goal. The play-ground resounded with cheers.

There was an interval for ten minutes. The game restarted. The players of the Hindu School team tried their best to equalise with us. But they could not succeed. The time was over and we won the match.
