

Letter on Rash and Reckless Driving by School-Going Children

Question: You are Amit/ Amita living at F-25, Shalimar Colony, New Delhi. You have observed that many school-going children drive around on bikes without a valid driving license, thereby endangering their own lives as well as those of others. Write a letter to the editor of a National Daily to sensitizing students about the risks involved in underage driving. Also, give suggestions.

Subject: Letter on Rash and Reckless Driving by School-Going Children.

Sir,

Through the columns of your esteemed newspaper. I wish to draw the attention of the School-Going Children to the risks involved in undergoing driving.

Most teenagers drive their bikes at break-neck speed even though they have no valid driving license. Rash-driving most often results in accidents. Sometimes the accidents prove fatal. The raw hands endanger not only their own precious lives but also the lives of others. Sometimes the children seat two or three other children on their bikes and raise the fore wheels of the bikes.

I hope my letter will sensitive the students about the impending risks and they would mend their ways. Parents are also requested to check the minors from driving bikes.

Thanking you
yours faithfully,
Amit/Amita
