Dialogue writing solved examples

Dialogue writing between father and son

Complete the following dialogue.

Father: How dare you to confront me with this kind of failing grades?

Son: Well dad, do I have a choice? I had previously told you that this new school is not going to work for me!

Father: (a) _____

Son: (b) _____

Answer: (a) Don't tell me such things. It was only after we've had those lengthy family discussions about the need for a change of your school that I took steps towards it. And you did approve of it.

(b) I did, but I don't know why it doesn't seem to be working as we had planned. I feel the teachers and students of this school are too advanced for me. Though my grades were falling in the previous school, I was able to mix more openly with everyone over there.
