

Essay on Our Prime Minister Dr. Manmohan Singh 150 words

India is a republic country. As per the rules the people make the government and this time they have selected Dr. Manmohan Singh as their Prime Minister.

Born in a small village in Gah which is situated between Lahore and Islamabad in 1932. Dr. Manmohan Singh spent his childhood in Pakistan and in Amritsar. They settled down in Amritsar after the partition. Dr. Manmohan Singh became the Lecturer in Punjab College after completing his Ph. D. (Economics) from Oxford.

He became the Finance Consultant due to his sheer hard work. Later on, he was appointed as the Governor of Reserve Bank of India (RBI).

Dr. Manmohan Singh became Finance Minister when Narsimha Rao was selected as Prime Minister. Dr. Manmohan Singh pledged as the Prime Minister on May 22, 2004.

He is a great personality. Dr. Manmohan Singh achieved his grand success through his Diligence, hard work, and integrity. The whole country expects a lot from him and we wish him all success in his new assignment.